Good Rains Assure Southeast's Corn Crop

3½ Inches Fall At Auburn

'Crop Looks Wonderful,' Says State Statistician

Nebraska's weekend rains—which measured up to three and a half inches of moisture—have virtually "made" the state's corn crop in the southeast section.

These are the reassuring words of A. E. Anderson, State-Federal crop statistician, commenting on the late Saturday and early Sunday morning rainfall which measured up to 3.50 inches at Auburn.

"All of the crop in eastern Nebraska looks wonderful," Anderson declared following a tour of the corn territory.

He added that even in the areas where moisture has been short—Knox County and other northern and western counties—the corn is not beyond use. "Most of this will make good feed," Anderson said.

Electrical Storms

Severe electrical storms dumped up to three-and-a-half inches of precipitation in the Auburn area late Saturday and early Sunday, knocking out 23 telephone toll lines. Most of the heavier rainfall fell in the extreme southeastern section.

Falls City received .51 inches of precipitation by 7 a.m. Sunday. Another .55 inches fell later in the day, a weather observer reported.

A general fall of 1.50 inches was recorded in the Humboldt area. Beatrice reported 1.10 inches and Fairbury 1.05.

The "corn-making" showers were to be followed up Monday with partly cloudy skies for the state and more scattered thunderstorms, mostly in the afternoon and night, the Weather Bureau predicted.

There will be little change in the temperature. Highs are expected to range in the 80s in the northeast to 90s in the southwest.

The weekend showers brought .09 inches to Lincoln and .05 at the airport weather station. Omaha received .01 inches.

County Polio Cases Reach Total Of 75

Lancaster County has a total of 75 cases of polio a weekend report discloses. Fifty-two were in Lincoln, 16 in Huskerville, the rest from other parts of the county.

The previous worst year, 1948, saw a total of 68 cases in the county during the entire year.

The state now has a total of 126 cases for 1952, 72 of which were reported during the week. During 1948 there were 717 cases in Nebraska.

Woman Enrolled In Husband's Class

If Mrs. Marion Sederburg does not answer all of Monday's examination questions, chances are she will hear about it tonight.

Mrs. Sederburg is taking a course in health education during Nebraska Wesleyan University's extended summer session.

Her husband, Associate Professor M. S. Sederburg, teaches the course.

Mrs. Sederburg laughingly asserts that it wasn't any great desire to hear her husband talk for several hours at a time that brought her into this particular classroom.

She will serve as a substitute teacher in the Lincoln City Schools this coming year. She needed the health ed course to meet rigid Nebraska requirements for certification.

"As a matter of fact, I was spared from listening to too many of my husband's lectures," she says.

The course was conducted with the co-operation of T. R. Dappen of the state Department of Public Health and many guest lecturers from that Department participated.

Any complaints about the close relationship between teacher and taught?

Prof. Sederburg says no. "I've never had any favorites in my classrooms," he says. "This would be a poor time to start."

Injured Man 'Improved'

Alred E. Behrens, 39, of 125 No. 22nd was in a "much improved" condition Sunday night at St. Elizabeth Hospital after a car-pedestrian accident Friday night near 23rd and O.

Behrens suffered a deep laceration above the right eye, possible fractures to his skull and left shoulder, and cuts and bruises.

MEAD, Neb. (AP)—Mrs. Raymond Carlson, 29, of Mead, died Sunday at Douglas County Hospital in Omaha of bulbar polio.

She was taken to the hospital in a portable iron lung last Monday by members of the Wahoo fire department first aid squad.

Survivors include her husband, operator of a garage in Mead, and two young sons.

Pastor Blasts At Dirksen

Governor Stevenson Hears Minister Brand Solon 'Irresponsible'

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (IN)—Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson Sunday heard the pastor of a Springfield church defend him against charges made by Republican Sen. Dirksen (Ill.) and call Dirksen "one of the most irresponsible men in the Senate and in his own party."

Stevenson attended morning services at the First Presbyterian Church before resuming conferences with his top political advisers at the top political advisor's mansion.

Dirksen was not mentioned by name in the sermon of Rev. Paul Graebel, but the pastor told newsmen after the services that the Republican senator was his target. Graebel said he did not know Stevenson was in the congregation while he was preaching.

Graebel accused Dirksen of telling a "blatant lie" when he called Stevenson the "worst Illinois governor since the turn of the century" and added:

Honesty Only Policy

"In religion and politics, honesty is not only the best policy, it is the only. This discovery comes late to some, but better late than never."

Dirksen nominated Sen. Taft of Ohio for president at the recent GOP national convention, but now is an adviser to the Republican nomination winner, Gen. Eisenhower.

Graebel, regarded as a "crusading" pastor, told his worshippers: "Nothing hurts the cause of Christ more than having a man betray the fundamental virtues of his faith."

"Such a man, and I am thinking of one who is an elder of the Presbyterian church, a United States senator coming from one of the most corrupt towns in the midwest, whose pastor wrote me when this man ran for office telling me that he is incorruptible and urged me to vote for him two years ago."

(Dirksen is from Pekin, Ill.)

Recalls Attack On Dewey

Graebel added: "This man has turned out to be one of the most irresponsible men in the senate and in his own party . . .

"This same man denounced one of the most capable public officials of this land—a man in his own political party. (Graebel said later he was referring to Dirksen's attack on New York Gov. Thomas Dewey during the GOP convention).

"Finally, he told a blatant lie about the governor of this state, and the tragic thing is he knows it is a lie."

Italians Save Four Fleeing Yugoslavians

BARI, Italy (AP)—Four Yugoslav workers fleeing their homeland for political refuge in Italy were saved from possible death Sunday by an Italian fishing boat.

The four young workers from Zara were found in an advanced state of exhaustion drifting in their small boat off Vieste, a port near here, by the Italian boat.

They will be taken to the refugee camp near here after questioning, officials said.

Ike Soon May Ask Taft's Aid

Advisers Divided Over
What Use To Make Of Senator's Services

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (P)—Gen. Eisenhower soon may ask Sen. Taft to join his campaign in an effort to heal the Republican party wounds suffered at the Chicago convention.

Eisenhower is known to have proposed a conference with Taft when the latter returns from a prolonged vacation at Murray Bay, Canada.

Taft, who lost the Republican presidential nomination to Eisenhower in a bitter battle at Chicago a month ago, is expected back in Washington about Sept. 7.

A Difficult Decision

As the situation now stands, the Eisenhower camp is reported divided over what use to make of Taft if the Ohio senator carries out the promise he made in Chicago to help any way he can in the general election campaign.

One segment of Eisenhower's supporters, said to be headed by Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, apparently feels that it would be unwise to inject Taft's policies and his record into Eisenhower's campaign in a major way.

Rep. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey put this idea into words recently with an assertion, in a speech in his home state, that Eisenhower can win if the public is convinced he has broken with the GOP old guard.

On the other hand, some Eisenhower lieutenants are reported worried about the evident failure of many rank and file Taft supporters to rally to the GOP nominee's cause.

From Lincoln's Pulpits:

'People Need Reconciliation With God'—Rev. Clarence Hall

Rev. Clarence P. Hall of First Lutheran Church spoke on the theme "Things Pertaining to Peace" in his final communion service Sunday.

The minister, who is leaving Lincoln Sept. 1 for Gowrie, Ia., pointed out that people need "a reconciliation with God, a forgiveness of sins and a new birth into a new life."

We must maintain a life with God through the regular use of the Word in the home and church," he stressed.

Taking his text from Romans 11:17-24, he said that as the branches grafted onto the good roots grew and produced fruit, "so are Christians united with Christ and from Christ, through the Word and symbols, gain life and strength."

"Christians produce fruit from their relationship with Christ." "When we fall into disbelief, we break the relationship of life and peace," he continued.

"Sin separates us from God, destroying God's life, powerline and its peace."

Westminster Presbyterian

"No word is more lightly used and less truly understood than the word 'love,'" Dr. John Douglas Clyde of Westminster Presbyterian Church said Sunday in his sermon. "The greatest thing in the world."

"It is indisputably true that we need nothing more desperately in our world today than what we need true love," he said. "One way to get at a truth is to understand its opposite; and its opposite is intolerance."

"Too many of us feel that the way to prove we are not intolerant is to utterly give in on all controversial matters, but 'tolerance' is not the opposite of 'intolerance' at all, but is simply a spiritual no man's land," he pointed out.

The pastor pointed out that "love" is that which does not insist on its own way but that

U.S. Families Spent More Than They Earned In 1950

Fact-Finders Ring 15,180 Door Bells

WASHINGTON (P) — Families living in cities and towns spent more money in 1950 than ever before, the Bureau of Labor Statistics BLS reported today in a brand new survey of American spending habits.

Preliminary studies indicate, in fact, that they spent about 6 per cent more than they earned.

Total income from all sources, and after payment of personal taxes, averaged $4,300 in 91 cities and towns ranging in size from New York down to places like Shenandoah, Ia.

But total expenditures, BLS reported, averaged $400 more—$4,700 per family. One of the big reasons—the buying spree in the fall of 1950 following outbreak of fighting in Korea.

The spending survey, under way for months by expert BLS reporters, is not completed. BLS cautioned in making the preliminary estimates public that they give "only broad general impressions," leaving plenty of room for error.

To get their facts, BLS researchers knocked at 15,180 front doors in such a way "that the sample of dwellings was random and representative of all private living quarters in each city."

New Price Index

When the survey is completed and all the data compiled, BLS will put out a new "consumers price index" carefully tuned to modern American spending habits.

The average family's housing bill in the 91 cities took 15 per cent of money income, and that included fuel, light and refrigeration.

Food and alcoholic beverages took an average 30 per cent of income; another 52 per cent of income after taxes were paid for automobiles, TV sets, refrigerators, other household appliances, doctor and hospital bills, tobacco, recreation and transportation.

Nebraska Has 58,000 Vets World War II

WASHINGTON (P)—The Veterans Administration figures there are 19,288,000 living veterans of all wars and peacetime military service of the United States on June 30.

The total includes 921,000 veterans of service since the Korean war started June 27, 1950, including those who also had World War II.

At the age of 16 he began working for the E. E. Bennett Casket Co. in Lincoln and followed that line of work almost his entire life. He was employed by a Portland casket firm until his last illness in February.

Survivors include his wife, Pearl; a daughter, Leila Walters, Portland; son Gale, at home; one brother, Henry E. Grice, Amarillo, Tex.; four sisters, Mrs. Laura Baker, Olympia, Wash., Mrs. Mary Webber and Mrs. Grace Schrader, both of Lincoln; and Mrs. Martha Priest, Buffalo, Mo.; and one grandson.

New York topped the states with 1,925,000 veterans, 1,600,000 from World War II and 325,000 from other wars and peacetime service.

4 Lincoln Men Attend Meeting For Educators

Lincoln was well represented at the 4-day Hazen Foundation biennial conference which ended Saturday at Colorado Springs, Colo.

Four Lincoln men were among the more than 100 college educators from 12 states who attended to discuss the subject, "Our Dilemma in Higher Education."

They were Dr. George W. Rosenlof, dean of admissions and Dr. M. C. Latta, professor of economics, both from the University of Nebraska; Dr. Carl Bracy, chancellor of Nebraska Wesleyan University; and Dr. C. Vin White, pastor of Lincoln's First Presbyterian church.

Dr. Rosenlof was chairman of the conference planning committee, of which Dr. Bracy was a member. Dr. Latta served as group leader.

Dr. White officiated as chaplain for the sessions, lasting from Monday through Saturday.

Principal speakers were Samuel Stumpf, professor of philosophy at Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., and Dr. Ernest O. Melby, dean of the school of education of New York University. Their topics dealt with the problems of the effective teaching of ethics and morals in colleges.

Dr. Rosenlof and Dr. Latta were accompanied to Colorado Springs by their families.

H. B. Grice Dies in Portland; Lincoln Resident 50 Years

Harry B. Robert Grice, a native of Lincoln who lived here for 50 years, died at his home in Portland, O., Saturday, according to local news.

The June 30 figures established place of residence of 18,909,000 of the living veterans but said residence data was not available for 379,000 who had served only since the Korean War started.

The VA said Nebraska had 58,000 World War II veterans and 18,000 veterans of other wars and services.

New York topped the states with 1,925,000 veterans, 1,600,000 from World War II and 325,000 from other wars and peacetime service.

Nebraska Hunters Are Offered A Large Variety This Season

Sportsmen take your choice—pheasants, quail, grouse, waterfowl, doves, deer, rabbits, squirrels and raccoon. This large variety of hunting, as diversified as that found in any state, is on tap for Nebraskans this fall and winter.

Season dates on all species but waterfowl and doves were determined at the recent meeting of the Nebraska Game Commission in Lincoln. The dove season was announced earlier as being from Sept. 1 to 30. Dates of the state's waterfowl season will be announced from Washington, probably late this month.

An improved grouse population permitted an increase in the bag and possession of two and two of last year to three and three for this year's Oct. 11-15 season slated for Arthur, Box Butte, Cherry, Dawes, Grant, Hooker, Keya Paha, McPherson, Rock and Sheridan counties.

Nebraska's buck deer season will begin on Dec. 1 and end on the 7th. The doe hunt starts immediately thereafter—on the 8th—and continues through the 15th. Open area for buck hunting is comprised of Banner, Morrill, Scotts Bluff, Sioux, Sheridan and Dawes counties. Doe hunting will be permitted in all of the remaining 13 counties.

The rabbit season, now in progress, closes on Jan. 31, 1953. After a two-month closed period, the rabbit season opens again on April 1 and continues throughout the remainder of the year. The entire state is open. Capital, 2 p.m.

The squirrel season is identical to that of last year, Oct. 1-Dec. 31.

Raccoon and opossum hunting is permitted throughout the year with one exception, that being the period between April 1 and the year hunting these two species with dogs is prohibited.

An Awakening Community

Some healthy, wholesome developments have been shaping up in Lincoln in recent days.

The telephone rang. The voice at the other end said to the editor that it was curious to know precisely what the people of Lincoln had gotten in the first year of a higher tax levy for the additional revenue voted to city government. The question is a proper one. The City Hall has utilized an approximate third of the additional revenue for salary adjustments. In going to the voters, however, with a plea for more money for city government, unless memory is faulty, a long list of objectives in the form of public improvements was set forth as the goal of a ten-year program.

It may not have occurred to the busy members of Lincoln's City Council that one of the ten years has come and has gone without very tangible results so far as the people of Lincoln can observe. There has been some new equipment purchased for use of the Fire and Police Departments. The Library has revised and expanded its bookshelves and its collections. Here and there, some minor steps have been taken but the big promises dangled in front of the voters of this community still are unfulfilled and if any progress at all has been made are still in the blueprint stage.

Mayor Victor Anderson was thinking out loud a little bit more than a week ago at the City Hall. He opined that it might be necessary to go to the voters with a proposal for a bond issue in order to speed up the program of storm sewer construction. The bonds, including principal and debt service charges (interest) would be met, the Mayor suggested, from out of the accumulating funds of the increased levy approved in July of 1951.

His proposal may have some merit but the least that should have been said about it is that the people should have been informed a year ago—before they went to the polls—that it would be necessary to finance storm sewers through the issuance of bonds to be retired in the manner suggested by the Mayor. It will cost the people

Summer's Silly Season

August's languid heat not only marks a period known to the people of the American midlands as "Dog Days"; they contribute more than their proper share of silly letters, a portion of which reach the desks of editors.

One prize example from an organization that describes itself as "Women For Better Government" lists 11 questions and their appeals to the recipient to pass judgment upon which one of the 11 is of the most importance.

The questions cannot be used in full, but here are a few specimens:

1—Why are we fighting in Korea?
2—Why are we protecting Korea?
3—What has Korea that our political leaders want?

4—Since Gen. MacArthur had the Reds on the run, why was he recalled?

Fascination Of Science

There was a measure of happiness and pride for this editor in the brochure sent out by Popular Science.

Turning its pages he came upon the picture of the editor of Popular Science, Volta Torrey. Mr. Torrey started his journalistic career in the newsrooms of The Lincoln Star. He worked on this paper part of the time while finishing his training at the University of Nebraska, then assumed full reportorial responsibilities.

A cracking good newspaper man, Mr. Torrey, keen of mind, painstaking in his workmanship, imaginative in a superlative degree. From the Star he moved to the Omaha World-Herald, the of Lincoln substantially more money in these days of high labor and material costs, granted that storm sewers will not wait in many sections of the city of Lincoln facing acute drainage problems, to finance storm sewers by bonds. Interest is a busy little worker, night and day.

And there is another obstacle to the Mayor's outline. He and his Council associates cannot bind their successors in the expenditure of money beyond the terms of the present members of the City Council. Only the people can do that. The thing the Council should have done has not been done. It knew after the July election of 1951 that it was to have an approximate $400,000 of additional revenue—an amount which the Mayor expressed the opinion at the time was adequate for all purposes. Director Dave Erickson, we assume, sat in with the Mayor and the members of the Council in studying those proposals for more revenue. A recent bond election in this community in connection with the construction of the new City Auditorium demonstrated rather convincingly that the people of Lincoln are not going to approve more bonds or vote more money for this City Council to use until it gets down to business.

There is a growing weariness with the cries of no money to do the things which should be done in this community. Its taxpayers do not pay the highest taxes but they pay plenty. When a little more than a year ago they gave city government authorization to levy an additional approximate $100,000 on real and personal property in this community they had a right to expect that the first concern at the City Hall would be a carefully drawn, long range program of public improvements. Now the Council has committed a third of that money to salary readjustments. Some of it was so richly deserved by faithful, loyal employees, some of it represents some rather plush ideas, which we may or may not be able to afford. On the wholesome side is the awakening interest of a community in the affairs that take place in local government. The vigor, the health of any city reflects itself when its people, always looking forward to improvement, devote time and energy to study and thought of what happens here at home.

5—Is it the intent of these so-called "armistice talks" to allow Russia time to build up her forces for a calamitous offensive?

6—Have the politicians who are wrecking America betrayed China into the hands of the Russians, knowing that the weakened Orient would follow her lead?

9—Should the books used in our public schools be censored and freedom, loyalty to country and absence of regimentation be taught?

We have still a better question.

Who, in heaven's name, man or woman, with eyes to see and ears to hear hasn't either read or heard the answers to those questions at least a thousand times in the last year. America's one best hope is that in the impending battle at the polls foreign policy will not be torn to shreds and Moscow be led to believe things that aren't true.

Fascination Of Science

Chicago Tribune as a member of its editorial staff, and then to the New York Herald-Tribune, specializing in political writing, for which he had a remarkable flair. It is not difficult for anyone who knows Mr. Torrey to realize that these years of fascinating scientific development fired his enthusiasm and captivated his skill.

There was another satisfaction in that brochure.

On the next page was a picture of Howard Alloway, the managing editor of Popular Science, another Nebraska graduate, and another outstanding man to whom we often refer as one of our boys.

New Job For 'Old Potato Head'

The question raised by appointment of Matyas Rakosi as premier of Communist Hungary is whether he is being moved up or being moved out.

The story is an old one: a revolutionary emerges from a prison cell, rises rapidly to power, then is crushed. Rakosi has made the traditional two steps, and whether it is a prelude to the third—and final—step will be told with the passage of time.

Known as "Old Potato Head," Rakosi has been secretary-general of the Hungarian Communist party and deputy premier. The move which placed him at the head of the governmental machinery puts him squarely on the spot with Mos-

The Age Of Glamor

Gloria Swanson, whose comeback as a film actress has been one of the nicest events in Hollywood in recent years, had some pleasant words for the American girl the other day. She also has some harsh observations about the American male.

The women, she says, are "20 years younger today than they were a generation ago at the same age." The men, however, have "let themselves get fat and bald before their time and go around in sloppy clothes." They also are interested only in "baseball, automobiles and golf," according to Gloria.

Now all this is very acceptable, since Miss Swanson is entitled to a well-voiced opinion in this free country. But if the women have been getting so all-fired youthful and attractive, why are the men interested only in baseball, automobiles and golf?

Pinning Down Saucers

The news columns reported that the Boise City Council approved a schedule of airport fees for flying saucers seeking to set down in that Idaho town. Non-scheduled landings will cost $50, a charge of $10 will be levied for the first three minutes of "hovering rights," and an additional $10 will be charged for each minute of hovering at less than 1,000 feet. Saucers less than 1,000 feet in diameter will pay $1 tiedown fees; $1 for each additional 50 feet in diameter.

If you can't lick a good rumor, join it.

cow, and the bald, grim Rakosi unquestionably knows it. He is one of the last of that select group of Communists who received from Stalin a wartime promise that every non-Russian Communist country would have "national independence" and a free voice in Communist councils when the war ended. The others in that group have been liquidated or squeezed from power; Kostov of Bulgaria and Rajk of Hungary were executed, and Ana Pauker, once the most politically powerful woman in the world, has fallen in disgrace. They are but a few of the one-time leaders who were broken by an almost mechanical process of rise and fall.

Whether Rakosi will survive remains to be seen. Whether the Kremlin means business in dominating each one of its satellite nations has long been determined. Mistakes can be tolerated in a democratic free society, but not in a dictatorship controlled from Moscow. Those who have devoted their lives to intrigue inevitably have been shunted aside by intrigue to die, one way or another, beyond the fold of the Communist masters.

Completion Nearing On Deshler Church Grade School

Volunteers Offer Help On Building

By JOHN SWANSON
Star Staff Writer

DESHLER, Neb.—Students attending the St. Peter's Lutheran School here will soon be enjoying the facilities of one of the most modern church grade schools in this part of the state.

Workmen are rushing to complete a new building which will combine a parish hall for the church and a four-classroom school building for grade pupils attending the school.

The ultra-modern structure will also contain offices and a library. Rev. R. L. Hafner, pastor of St. Peters and principal of the school, said the final cost of the building will be reduced by volunteer labor on the part of church members.

Use Salvage Material

Another factor in keeping the cost of construction down to the low figure of $75,000 will be the considerable amount of salvage material taken from the old grade school building torn down this year by members of the church. The one-story school will be of brick and stone construction with a tile and cinder block interior.

The parish hall may also be converted into a gymnasium. It will provide floor space almost equal to the basketball gym at the Deshler High School. A stage at one end of the hall will enable students to present dramatic and musical productions.

William Cholcher is superintendent of the school, and Miss Lela Bartels and C. W. Huelle are teachers. Rev. Hafner estimated that the new building will be ready for occupancy sometime in October.

New Demo Committeewoman's Political Career Began In '32

RULO, Neb.—(Lincoln Star Special)—Nebraska's new Democratic national committeewoman, Mary Cunningham of Rulo, held her first political post back in 1932 when she was appointed precinct committeewoman at Rulo.

Two years later she served as vice chairman of the Democratic central committee of Richardson County.

One of the first organizers of the Young Democrats in Nebraska and the midwest, Miss Cunningham served as secretary of the Young Demos of Richardson County in 1932, and was national committeewoman of the state group for two terms, 1938 to 1940.

Miss Cunningham attended the first four national Young Demo conventions as a Nebraska delegate. She was an alternate delegate at large to the national Democratic convention in 1936.

At this year's Chicago convention, Miss Cunningham was an alternate delegate from the First congressional district.

Born and reared at Rulo, she was graduated from Kansas University with a B.S. degree in 1929.

She worked for the State Highway Department in Lincoln from 1935 until 1940 when she went to Washington, D. C., to become an examiner in the comptroller-general's accounting office.

Miss Cunningham returned to Rulo in 1946 to manage the family farms in Nebraska, Missouri and Kansas.

She defeated Mrs. Grace Barrmore of Lexington for the post of national committeewoman at the recent state Democratic convention in Grand Island.

Those Last, Lazy, August Just-Before-School Days

There are those we know who believe that going back to school is just a matter of trading one set of fun for another—but we're sure that such a philosophy is not shared by one and all. One doesn't find the solid comfort in school, for instance, that the group at the upper left has found on the terrace at Dallas Hunt's home. We won't say that Miss Hunt's camera won't follow her to school, but one must admit there will be a difference in subject matter—Dallas, by the way, bids fair to be another Margaret Bourke White in the matter of photography, and in this instance she is practicing on (left to right, front row) Nanci Coover, Claudette Hof, Sharon Quinn and Joan Augustine. Seated on the railing are Jayne McIntosh of Sidney, and Judy Truell.

During the school year (holidays excepted) all daytime parties must be on Saturday, so the group (second from left) is having an extra-special good time at the home of Mrs. L. C. Chapin and Miss Mary Chapin. The party last Saturday afternoon was to honor Mrs. Chapin's twin granddaughters, Bourke and Morgan Larkin of Los Angeles, Calif. In the group, standing from left to right, are Mary Lynn Stafford, Bourke Larkin, and Cynthia Barber. Seated from left to right (if you count noses) are Sally Wilson, Morgan Larkin, Sharon Sildes, Nancy Hallam, Ann Truman, Nan Carlson, Phyllis Williamson and Suzie Swingle.

We'll wager that the three coeds we found at the Lincoln Country club swimming pool—Lynn Holland, Bobbie Russell and Ting Lilly—won't have quite as much fun on the campus as a lazy August afternoon affords. But one never can tell, can one? No, one can't.

As far as this bridge foursome is concerned it isn't the bridge game that is unusual, but the fact that there are no classes tomorrow—no studying tonight—just an afternoon of complete fun and relaxation. Around the table, from left to right, are University of Nebraska coeds Miss Mitzie Moyle, Miss Barbara Dillman, Miss Nancy Klein and Miss Nancy Stebbins.

One thing we know for sure—no ice cream cones at school, so maybe that is the reason the young crowd we find with the ice cream cones seem to be enjoying them so thoroughly. Of course school is the least of Mr. Freddie Davie's worries (he is the lad seated on the ground), but we feel that the others in the group return to school with lagging feet. Enjoying just "sittin'" and their cones on a warm August afternoon were (left to right) Steve Kosman, Sarah Davie, Ricky Purvis, Leigh Purvis and Lynn Purvis.

Our vehicle brigade, found at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Buckley, Jr., has divided interests. As far as Joe Miller (extreme left) is concerned, school is all to the good—he's never been there. Agreeing with him perfectly are our three wagon occupants, Barbara Buckley, Kathy Buckley and Terry Wall. The dissenters in the group are Mary Lee Garvin, extreme right, and Jeannie Miller and Mary Ann Miller, standing at the back.

Joan Raun Is Bride

Two hundred and fifty invitations were issued for the wedding of Miss Joan Elizabeth Raun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris L. Raun of Minden, and Delbert Kopf, which took place at the United Presbyterian church in Minden on Saturday evening, August 16. Lighted cathedral candles, in seven-branched holders entwined with greenery, lined the chancel which had a wide, fan-shaped arrangement of white gladioli as a center decor. On either side of the chancel steps were pedestal with side curves that revealed a front panel of pleated organdy, and lengthened into a chapel train. Her double-tiered veil of illusion was held to the head with a bonnet of pleated Swiss illusion, and she carried a white Bible, topped with white orchids from which fell a shower of satin ribbons caught with clusters of stephanotis. Her only ornament was a three-strand pearl necklace.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors where the refreshments of Kappa Kappa Gamma. Mrs. Armitstead, as you no doubt know, is the niece of Miss Clara Evans of Lincoln.

THE TOPIC of newly marrieds brought to mind the slick paper magazine the Broadmoor (Colorado Springs) sends out each month. In the current one is a picture of Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Walt Jr., who spent their honeymoon at the Colorado hotel.

NATURALLY, since August has reached the stage of middle-age, there are homecomers to talk about—their son, Hank, and daughter Ann, who has just returned from a holiday in Colorado.

Among them are Mr. and Mrs. William L. Ferguson,

AND TODAY, so someone told us, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ellis, their daughter Sandra, and son, Sam, will be returning from Minnesota. Sam, it seems, has been attending camp in Minnesota, and his parents and sister timed their holiday there so the family would return together.

ANOTHER OF the Monday homecomers is Miss Linda Walt who returns from Colorado where she visited her brother-in-law and sister (Sandra Walt) at their ranch near the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Mahaffey this week there will be something of a family reunion. The Mahaffeys' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Parker have arrived from St. Joseph, Mo., for a stay of a week or two, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Mahaffey, and their three children are arriving from Sidney to spend the week. Another son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mahaffey, reside in Lincoln—so, the reunion is one hundred percent complete.

Numerous family affairs have been planned during the visit from the out-of-towners.

UNDERSTAND THAT Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Ferguson are spending a brief time at Medicine Bow, Wyo.

HOSPITAL NOTES today have to do with E. C. Folsom who was removed from Lincoln General hospital to his home on Sunday.

Crook—Miss Walt, however, also visited in Alien Park before turning homeward.

BUT EVEN though this is homecoming time for some, it also is vacation time for others, and that makes it especially nice when the vacations are to be spent in Lincoln.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Mahaffey this week there will be something of a family reunion. THE LINCOLN CREDIT WOMEN'S BREAKFAST CLUB closed its summer activities on Sunday, August 24, with a pancake and sausage breakfast at Pioneer park.

Following breakfast, a meeting was held at which time members discussed the conference to be held in Sioux Falls, S. D. on Saturday and Sunday, September 13 and 14, which will honor the sixth district officers of the club.

Other summer activities of the club have been a picnic supper at Antelope park in June, and a fried chicken dinner at Capitol Beach followed by a hat decorating contest.

The summer committee for the above affairs was made up of Mrs. Belle Keittes, chairman; Miss Virginia Kenyon, Miss Doris Blackman, Miss Mildred Jensen and Mrs. Bea Wood.

UNDERSTAND THAT Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Ferguson are spending a brief time at Medicine Bow, Wyo.

ASSISTING at the reception for two hundred guests, held in the table was centered with a fan-shaped arrangement of white gladioli, and chrysanthemums in the pink and lavender tones. A smaller table was centered with the wedding cake in the shape of a maltese cross.

For the honeymoon trip to the Black Hills, Mrs. Kopf wore a faille suit frock in the rust shade, with elk-toned accessories. Mr. Kopf and his bride will go to Spokane, Wash., to reside.

Mrs. Kopf was graduated in June from the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Chi Omega sorority, Mortar Board, Phi Upsilon Omicron, and Omicron Nu. She served as a countess in the 1951 Court of Ak-Sar-Ben. Mr. Kopf attended the University of Nebraska where he is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity, Alpha Zeta, and a member of Innocents.

SPEAKING OF the campus reminded us of some interesting news we had from Key West, Fla. We might add that what we are about to tell you will be of special interest to Kappa Kappa Gamma circles.

For this morning Mr. and Mrs. Bert Evans of Taylor, Tex., are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Claire, to Paul T. Armitstead, Ensign, USN, which took place at Key West, Fla.

Mrs. Armitstead will remain in Key West until early in September when she will return to Lincoln to complete her work at the University of Nebraska where she is a member

Ted Andros, brother of the bride, will serve Mr. Feirich as best man, and seating the guests will be Jerry Feirich of Carbondale, and Victor Shaner of Wheaton, Ill.

Miss Bohner still has last minute prenuptial courtesies on her calendar—On Wednesday evening Mrs. C. J. Sanders and her daughter, the Misses Pat and Joan Sanders, will be hostesses at their home in courtesy to Miss Bohner. Twelve guests have been invited for an informal evening and a miscellaneous shower for the soon-to-be bride.

Miss Bohner was an honoree last Saturday when Mrs. J. P. Eberhart and her daughter, Mrs. John E. Smith entertained at a mother-daughter luncheon at the home of Mrs. Eberhart.

WISHING WELL By William J. Miller

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed especially for you. To get the message, add together the first numbers. If the sum of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's How To Work It

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

BERLIN—Olga, the hippo, overcame all East-West barriers and settled down in the Berlin Zoo for a mating season with Berlin's popular Knautschke.

The 12-year-old female hippopotamus was stopped five times and turned back twice by Communist police on her way from her native Leipzig in the Russian zone to West Berlin.

DEUX, France—The wife of a Deux factory worker gave birth to twins who arrived 17 miles apart.

The older of the twins, a boy, was born here. The doctor, fearing complications, had the mother moved to a clinic at Niort, 17 miles away. The second child, a girl, was born there.

BALTIMORE—Edward Leroy Gates, 47, of Greensboro, N.C., was brought into police court for fighting with a policeman.

Gates said he was a top ranking bantamweight boxer of years gone by and guessed his tussle with the cop was just an occupational hazard of the trade I've been following."

GEORGETOWN, Ky.—Roy McFarland enjoyed ringing a customer's doorbell when he was in the grocery business.

"I wish you would please stop ringing that bell. It gets on my nerves," Mrs. Ida Jones often told him.

"I enjoy hearing it," McFarland would reply.

Mrs. Jones' will directed the bell be given to McFarland, just as she had promised many years ago.

MINNEAPOLIS—A Minneapolis woman waved a friendly greeting and received unexpected visitors in her hotel room a few minutes later—police.

Elmer Shaffer was walking along the street when he happened to glance up to see Judy Cline waving at him from the fourth floor ledge of a hotel.

Elmer thought Judy was planning to jump and summoned police.

Judy told police she was just being friendly and that she climbs out of her hotel room every morning for a "little fresh air and sun."
